POST OFFICE PATRONS PETITION FOR CONFIRMATION OF DEWITT

Postmaster Going to Washington With Strong Petition—Original Objection Withdrawn, but New One Arises Which Can Easily Be Met in the Event of a Change in the Administration.

Confirmation by the Senate of the appointment of Postmaster William C. DeWitt is still delayed although the original objection made nearly a year ago is understood to have been withdrawn as soon as the belief on which it was based was found to be erroneous. This objection, before it was withdrawn, resulted in causing a delay of 11 months, during which Mr. DeWitt held over and it is said that now the only objection is to permit the postmaster to hold office for the additional 11 months, his new appointment for four years not being dated back to cover the 11 months already served. As the President, with the consent of the Senate, may remove a postmaster at any time, it would be very easy to remedy this, in the event that a Republican is elected President, by removing Mr. DeWitt 11 months before the expiration of his term, and not to which no serious objection could be very gracefully made by the postmaster, as it would be no reflection on his character and he would have actually held the office for a full term of four years.

The situation may be cleared up this week, as Postmaster DeWitt has been granted leave of absence for a week and will go to Washington on Tuesday to explain matters in person to Senators Wadsworth and Calder.

A petition for the confirmation of the appointment of Postmaster DeWitt has been signed by business and professional men and heads of departments in various industries, regardless of politics. Republicans assuming that so long as only a Democrat will be appointed by a Democratic President we might as well give one who has shown his efficiency. This petition is as follows:

SPIKER ROMANCE COMES TO END

Guy Spiker and Miss Knowles Leave For Baltimore Home Following Quiet Wedding at Battersby Home in Fall River.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Fall River, Mass., Feb. 9.—And they lived happily ever after.

This is the way Mr. and Mrs. Guy Spiker said today they propose to write the rest of the great international romance in which they have played so prominent a part.

They were married here yesterday. Today Spiker and his bride and five months old Alfred Ray Spiker, son of Guy Spiker's brother, Percy, started for Baltimore, where they will make their home.

Spiker denied they will live with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Spiker. The newlyweds will have a home of their own, he said.

Guy Spiker and Miss Knowles were made man and wife in a sunlit parlor of Miss Knowles' friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Battersby. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Arnold, pastor of the Eagle Street Christian Church. A solemn little service written by Rev. Dr. Martin Sumnerbell, president of Palmer Institute, Lakewood, N. Y., was used. Only members of the Battersby family and a half a dozen newspapermen were present.

DR. LEVITAS'S OFFICE ROBBED

Daylight Robbery Sunday Afternoon of Downtown Dentist's Office—Thieves Took Gold Worth $500 and $175 in Cash—Liberty Bonds Left.

Sunday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock the dental office of Dr. Samuel T. Levitas, on the second floor of the building at No. 34 Broadway, corner Mill street, was burglarized and gold used in dental work worth $500 and $175 in cash were taken.

The robbery was discovered about 6 o'clock that afternoon by Abraham Markson, who is employed by Dr. Levitas. Mr. Markson had been at the office that afternoon about 3 o'clock and found everything all right. When he stopped in the office at 6 o'clock he found that the safe had been robbed.

The safe which stood in the office, it is understood, was not locked. In the safe the dentist kept his Liberty Bonds, War Savings Stamps and jewelry. The thief had taken everything out of the safe, and after glancing it over had replaced it, taking only the gold and the money as stated.

Sergeant Phinney made an investigation when the burglar was reported to police headquarters.

It is thought the robbery was the work of "professionals" who make a practice of robbing dentists' offices.

Across the hall from the suite of rooms occupied by Dr. Levitas as his dental parlors reside a family who were home during the afternoon, but who heard no unusual noises, and were greatly surprised when they were informed of the burglary.

ARE STILL BUSY OPENING STREETS

Since Friday the street department has been using as many men and rigs as it was possible to obtain to clear away the snow from Thursday's blizzard from the main arteries of travel in the city, and while a great deal has been accomplished there is still considerable work ahead before even Broadway is restored to a normal condition. It is estimated that the cost of removing the snow from the streets will exceed $10,000.

On the side streets it is still impossible for automobiles to be used, and all of the physicians are using the trolley cars and horse and sleighs in visiting their patients.

Horses are in big demand and the storm has restored the horse to its own again. It is said that those owning horses are receiving a dollar an hour for the use of a rig. One local man had to make a trip to East Kingston Sunday with a horse and sleigh and the trip cost $6. It is also stated that for the use of a horse and sleigh an entire day the rate is $15.

The storm bound streets have also made it hard on the undertakers, as it is still impossible for an auto hearse to get to some of the city cemeteries. At least one undertaker has placed a hearse on runners, and when not using it himself other undertakers are allowed its services.

One undertaker stated today that he expected by Wednesday conditions would be such that it would be possible to use his auto hearse for funeral services.

CANTINE EMPLOYEES GIVEN INCREASE

Twenty Five Per Cent Raise Given Local Workers—Company Operating With Reduced Force.

Notice that employees would receive a twenty-five per cent increase in their wages was posted in the Martin Cantine Co. factory on Friday.

The company is operating the factory with a reduced force, who are loyal to their employers and who appreciate what has been done in their behalf by the company.

The Cantine company has annually supplied its employees with coal at a low rate, much below the prevailing price locally, and also given them plenty of time to pay for it.

The company has also insured each one of their employees and given the policies gratis, and in other ways has been helpful to them.

The pay of some of the men who quit work averaged $22.50 a week, and a fair number over the discharge of an employee, however, about the maintenance of the factory, and a few have been in many respects the same.

The plant of the company has been in a state of repair for some time and is still a strong asset to the community, and its well equipped work has contributed greatly to the prosperity of the village.

Carroll Case Adjourned.

Carroll is charged in the third degree with assault on a woman named Mrs. Carroll's wife. This morning in police court Carroll's wife and her mother were present, as was Carroll, who had a bloodstained hand which was said to be severely cut by glass.

HOOVER'S STATEMENT MUDDLES COMPLEX POLITICAL SITUATION

Leaves Doubt As To Whether He Is Candidate and of What Party—Clear Stand For League—Rebuke To Wilson Seen.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Feb. 9.—Instead of clarifying as a result of prominent persons coming out into the open with expressions of their political views and beliefs, the presidential political situation has become more obscure and muddled than ever as a result of the over-the-week activities, according to the privately expressed opinion today of party leaders on both sides.

The principal developments which have caused this are:

1. Herbert Hoover issued a statement declaring that he is not a candidate, but which did not state that he would not accept the nomination on either ticket. His Republican or Democratic leanings were left as much in the dark as ever.
2. Frank Hitchcock, former chairman of the Republican national committee, returned from a tour of the west and reported that he found the stock of Senator Hiram Johnson increasing in favor, and a lessening of the enthusiasm for General Leonard Wood.
3. A split is threatened in the ranks of New York state Republicans by William Bennett's declaration that he will make a fight to go to the Chicago convention as a delegate at large and that he will support Senator Johnson's candidacy.
4. A statement from the campaign manager of Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, that "Dr. Butler is almost alone in doing the thinking for the Republican party," caused considerable comment.

The Hoover statement was easily the most sensational development of the week, as viewed by the forecasters who frequent the various headquarters here. After reading the pronouncement, the general question asked was: "Well, is Mr. Hoover a candidate? And if so, which side is he on?"

There was considerable speculation over the Washington report that there has developed a coolness between Mr. Hoover and the White House. The part of the statement which was read with unusual interest was: "I do not believe in more combinations of groups could, as in Europe, create a danger of minority rule. I do believe in party organization, to support great ideals and to carry great issues and consistent policies. Nor can any one man dictate the issues of great parties."

Some observers saw in that last sentence a direct rebuke to a resident Wilson for his attitude in the treaty fight.

Hoover's statement was conclusive on one issue at least—his decided stand in favor of a league of nations in some form and that soon. He declares emphatically that he will support the issue of a league of nations, with or without reservations.

It was rumored about G. O. P. headquarters that Mr. Hitchcock came back from the west with a large number of pledges from prospective delegates in his pocket. A Hitchcock has yet to come out in favor of any candidate, this report caused considerable speculation.

"I am not now and probably shall not be committed to any candidate until the convention meets in June," said Hitchcock. "At least a dozen candidates will go to the post in Chicago. It is anybody's fight. I shall wait until sentiment so crystallizes as to point to the winner I shall be for him."

N. Y. STREET TRAFFIC HALTED

Blizzard Caused Worst Conditions in History—No Surface Cars For Three Days—Call For 60,000 Shovelers.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Feb. 9.—For the first time in its history the vehicular street traffic of all New York was at a standstill today by official order.

Despairing of getting the streets cleared of their mass of snow and ice by the regular methods, Mayor Hylan ordered an embargo on all trucking and traffic except that handling milk, foodstuffs, coal, snow and newspapers.

Shows are banked in some streets as high as ten feet, a heavy coating of ice and snow covers the street car tracks and there has been practically no surface car traffic for three days.

Nearly 18,000 men labored all night to clear the principal thoroughfares. A call for 60,000 more was issued today.

INTEREST IN LUSK LECTURE

It is a long time since anything has brought out such a spirit of community interest as the coming lecture to be given by Senator Lusk on "Americanism Against Radicalism," at the armory on Friday night of this week, under the auspices of the Federation of Women's Clubs. Every one seems to want to do something to help along this lecture, and to get for Senator Lusk a record breaking audience. Captain Fowler has assured the Federation of Women's Clubs that the armory will be warm and comfortable and so arranged as to seating that all will be able to hear this famous speaker and investigator. Mr. Glickslee's has generously consented to run advertising slides concerning the lecture, at Kennedy's, the Opera House and the Auditorium this week, and the management of the Orpheum will do the same. Announcement of this lecture was made in the churches on Sunday.

Those who live in Ponckhockie may secure their tickets from Mr. Ray Bowley, who has them for sale now.

GOOD TURN WEEK FEB. 8TH TO 14TH

Mayor's Office, Feb. 9, 1920.

The Boy Scouts of America is just now completing the first decade of its noteworthy history—a ten year organization devoted to the welfare of boys and the making of good citizens.

Reconsideration Favored 63 to 9—Goes To Foreign Relations and Will Come Back Promptly For Free Discussion.

TAXES BEING PAID SLOWLY

But Storm Is Probable Cause—City Treasurer's Office Open This Evening—4,700 Accounts to Handle Before March 2.

The city treasurer's office will be open this evening between 7:30 and 9 o'clock, when property owners may pay their taxes. A week for the payment of taxes has already elapsed, and only a small percentage of taxpayers have paid. City Treasurer Pardee reports, however, that prior to the big storm Thursday the collections for the first three days exceeded those of a ago for a like period. The time to pay taxes without additional fees expires on March 2, and inasmuch as there are 17,000 accounts to handle, considerable activity on the part of the taxpayers will be necessary if they are to get them in within the time limit.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Feb. 9.—Reconsideration of the peace treaty was agreed on by a majority of the senate this afternoon.

A motion by Senator Lodge, Republican leader, providing for a suspension of the senate rules to permit a reconsideration, was adopted by a coalition of Republican and Democratic senators favoring ratification.

A roll call was made necessary to secure the adoption of the motion, when Senator Norris, Republican, of Nebraska, objected to unanimous consent for a suspension of the rules.

Senator Lodge stated it was his purpose to have the treaty recommitted to the senate foreign relations committee to free it from the closure still attached to it, which prevents discussion.

The vote, by which Senator Lodge's motion was carried was 63 to 9.

The committee was to be instructed to report it back to the senate promptly. It was expected it would do so tomorrow. Unlimited debate would then follow unless the senate decided to again invoke closure.

Senator Lodge's action brought the treaty before the senate again for the first time since ratification was blocked on November 19, when the Lodge reservations were voted down by the Democratic side.

Van Demark of Lake Mohunk, the Rev. F. B. Seely officiating. The ring ceremony was read and was very impressive. The bride was lovely in a gown of ivory crepe de chine and carried bridal roses. She was attended by her sister, Ruth, who wore Pekin blue crepe de chine and carried pink roses. Ross Codrington of Accord acted as best man. The home was prettily decorated with sunlit and sweet peas. The ceremony was attended only by the immediate families of the bride and groom and a few friends. CLUBWOMEN NOT FORCIGARETTEBAN

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Feb. 9.—The Methodist Episcopal Church will get little if any support from New York club women in its war on cigarette smoking by women, according to declarations by members of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, now in convention here.

"We are supposed to have free speech, liberty and pursuit of happiness and why does everybody want to take them away from us?" demanded Mrs. John Frances Tawger, former president.

Mrs. Eugene Grant, another ex-president, also protested, saying that women had a right to smoke.

"After prohibition what next?" she exclaimed.

"The Widdler's Strategy."

"The Widdler's Strategy," written by Erastus Osgood, and which is to be given at the entertainment at St. John's Parish House on Wednesday evening of this week, is a more than clever little sketch, full of exceedingly humorous episodes, and so true to life that one is fascinated with it from beginning to end. As given by Mr. Osgood himself and Mrs. Raymond Grant it will be well worth the price of admission to the entertainment.

Pictureque New Zealand.

New Zealand is a land of mountains, gorges, rivers and fjords. The higher peaks of the south island are eternally snow capped and the glaciers of its southern Alps rival those of Switzerland. The surrounding seas are too cold for corals. Among the mountains of the north island volcanic fires are still active and the geysers and hot springs are little less impressive than those of the Yellowstone park.

Egg-Eating Snakes.

A queer African species of snake, which lives on eggs, has a toothlike spine projecting downward from its backbone, just behind the head, which is tipped with enamel. When it swallows an egg the latter passes down the gullet until it encounters the spine, which breaks the shell. Thus no part of the fluid contents is lost, as would be the case if the snake were obliged to bite the egg with its mouth-fangs.

DON'T FALL IN THE TRAP.

Commissioner Greene's insistence on the necessity for the county to procure the right of way for the Rondout creek bridge and the approaches to the bridge brings up another feature of the unlovely history of past performances. Every time there is a new survey and a new plan for the bridge there is a change in the extent of location of the right of way required. The board of supervisors has shown a disposition to meet these demands as they came up and has for several years been in possession of property on the Rondout side of the creek, which is now understood to be inadequate, owing to the latest changes in the plans for the bridge, although the original purchase has already once been added to in order to meet changes made in the original demand. As Commissioner Greene has followed the procedure of his predecessors in respect to making numerous and radical changes in his plans, the board of supervisors can scarcely be censured for waiting until it had ascertained that a final decision had been made.

Now that this assurance is given there should be no delay or hesitancy in the matter. Failure to procure the right of way demanded by the state is the one method by which the county can block the progress of the bridge or of any other state highway. It is the method by which boards of supervisors may veto any plan for highway building, made by the state. Without assurance that the right of way will be provided, Commissioner Greene would not be justified in awarding the bridge contract. Without action giving this assurance of official approval by the board of supervisors any request for a legislative appropriation lacks force and evidence of sincerity. If, in the varying demands made on the board of supervisors there is any attempt to "pass the buck," there is even greater reason for speedy action in order that another fiasco may not result and be charged to the local authorities. The board of supervisors has been faultless in the past. Let it not fall into a trap, if trap there be, by quibbling or dilatory conduct now.

NEW DETECTIVE AGENCIES.

Most of the Maryland churches which took steps to appoint "vigilance" committees, or more accurately detective agencies, from among their congregations, in response to the appeal of Internal Revenue Commissioner Roper in his widely noted letter to pastors, are likely to call a halt in the interests of their own dignity, if for no other reason, when they hear of the Bennett bill introduced in the legislature at Annapolis. If the Bennett bill should become a law, churches appointing such committees, or agencies for shadowing and getting evidence against violators of the prohibition law, will be required to take out licenses as private agencies. Such a prospect will be anything but alluring to an ecclesiastical body which realizes that it exists for higher uses than detecting and bringing lawbreakers to account—a rough business for which the civil authorities are appointed and for which they should be wholly responsible.

The Bennett bill provides that every corporation or association, ecclesiastical or lay, which shall maintain an organization or committee, or use its organization or any committee thereof for the purpose of habitually or regularly gathering information of violations of the law for the purpose of habitually or regularly informing upon persons by their supposed to have violated any law, shall be deemed to maintain a private detective agency and shall be out a license and pay therefor as provided in the preceding sections. The bill goes on to declare that any such corporation or association without taking out a license shall be deemed a public nuisance. Community steps to detect such persons by denouncing the corporation or association may be taken. Churches may preach prohibition, but the enforcement may more ap-

MARRIAGE PERCENTAGES.

Some observers expected 1919 to be a banner year for marriages because of the home-coming of two million soldiers from Europe and the return of almost as many more from military to civil life. But the New York Sun reports only 58,932 marriages in the metropolis, about 2,200 more than the record for 1918 and a few hundred less than that of 1917. The Sun characterizes such a small increase after the war as "a puzzle," yet goes on to show the influence of the dollar on romance by citing the instances of the prosperous year of 1907 with its "highest percentage of marriages" and the very next year—following the panic late in the second Roosevelt administration—with its "lowest recorded" percentage of marriages. There is no "puzzle" about it. Marriage and prosperity are very intimately associated in these modern times. Of course Cupid's darts fly as often as ever, disregarding the high cost of living. The difference is that even young men experiencing the mingled joy and pain of transfixed hearts are often unable to see their way to the altar. No doubt the girls hesitate, too, and more than ever in these days of independent young women workers. In many cases the girl draws a salary as large or almost as large as that of her fiance, and she knows from experience that even a liberal salary now has a small purchasing power. If the two salaries could be put together, all would be well; but the girl's must be given up after marriage and two must live on about what one is living on now. So their problem remains unsolved. They talk it over, decide that they must wait, and thus the percentage of marriages tends toward a statistical decrease in a time of merely nominal prosperity.

LITTLE LAUGHS.

"Does your husband belong to any of the secret societies?"
"Well, he thinks he does—but he talks in his sleep!"
Bunk—"The under crust to that chicken pie you brought me was abominably tough."
Waiter—"There wasn't any under crust to that pie, sir; it was served on a paper plate and you've eaten it."
She—"You think we women are more courageous than men?"
He—"Yes, no man would dare to go out on a cold night with only his trousers and suspenders on."
"You don't intend to have the hot pollock supper, do you, Mrs. Comeney?"
"Why, of course, if we can get hold of a cook that knows how to make it."—Baltimore American.
Dora—"I hate that Smarto girl. She just gave me a slap at my age."
Maude—"Says you look old?"
"No, says I'm beginning to look young."—Exchange.
Willie—"Paw, what is a social lion?"
Paw—"A social lion is a man whose wife does most of the roaring."
My son.—Cincinnati Enquirer.
"I tapped him on the shoulder and said, 'Well, old chap, you're a regular feller.'"
"And by George, it was a girl."—Kansas City Journal.

Want Daylight Saving.

Daylight saving for the city of Poughkeepsie alone is asked of the Common Council in action which has met with approval of the Chamber of Commerce and is likely also to have the support of the Trade and Labor Council. A municipal ordinance setting clocks ahead one hour beginning at 2 a. m. on the last Sunday of every March hereafter, is requested in resolutions, copies of which have been sent to each member of the Common Council. The ordinance would put the daylight saving plan in force from the appointed day each March until the last Sunday of each October.

NEW BOYS WORK SECRETARY HERE

Thomas A. Bridges of Washington, Pa., Assumes Work at Y. M. C. A.—In Thick of the Scrap at Chateau Thierry.

Thomas A. Bridges arrived today from Washington Pa., to take up his work as boys' work secretary of the Kingston Y. M. C. A. Mr. Bridges has come in time to take charge of the father and son banquet program which will have its banquet on Friday evening, February 20, to be held in three different sections of the city: Trinity M. E. Church, downtown, Y. M. C. A., central, and the uptown section will make its report as to the church in another day.

Mr. Bridges began work in the Young Men's Christian Association of Washington, Pa., in 1914, and did an exceptionally fine piece of work in the boys' department, especially in Bible study for which first place in North America has been awarded the boys' department of that association. In 1916 Mr. Bridges left association work and entered the army and spent some time on the border. His four brothers and father also were in the service. Mr. Bridges as a graduate of the Washington high school and was spending his third year in college when he again took up the army work. He was in the thick of the fighting around Chateau Thierry and he spent some time in the base hospital No. 202 and after the Argonne offensive was returned to the United States as instructor in physical training and bayonet work. While in France he was with the 28th division and was commissioned second lieutenant April 20, 1918, and promoted to first lieutenant October 23, 1919. He was sent to Camp MacArthur, Texas, and was discharged from Camp Grant, Ill., January 2, 1919. He then returned to Washington College and completed his course.

Mr. Bridges is a man of pleasing personality and the board of directors of the Central Y. M. C. A. are much pleased in being able to secure the services of a man who has done such splendid work in the association and also has rendered such a valuable service to his country.

AT THE THEATRES.

Nazimova's Greatest Role—Drama of Business at Auditorium.

Nazimova's great production, "The Brat," showing at Keeney's tonight and Tuesday is the story of the ennobling influences of love. Its heroine and dominating character is a waif of the city's slums who has never known any name save "the Brat." "The Brat" is Nazimova's greatest achievement. Other features are the Mack Bennett comedy and Hearst News weekly.

The Third Generation, at the Auditorium tonight, has a cast headed by Mabel Hamilton and Betty Blythe. It is a dramatically told story of how Alden Van Deusen's business was nearly ruined by his neglect and the courageous way in which he put his shoulder to the wheel. Also Fox News and Educational stories. Tomorrow Dorothy Dalton in "The Lady of Red Butte."

It is not an easy matter to accurately classify "The Better Ole," but it may unmistakably be said of this musical comedy, or comedy with music—which will be seen at the Kingston Opera House Thursday, Lincoln's birthday, matinee and night that it is a thoroughly delightful comedy entertainment. Interwoven with a number of popular songs. It includes the original New York cast and production brought to Kingston.

P. T. A. School 2.

There will be a meeting of the P. T. A. of School No. 2 Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by a well known speaker. All mothers are urged to attend.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to thank the friends and neighbors for their kindness shown me in the death of my husband, emceed by the Standard Oil Company, where Mr. Hamilton was employed, for the beautiful wreath, also the American Cigar Company for the lovely pillow.

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, Feb. 9.—The Lucky Club and friends gave a birthday surprise to Miss Alice LaPine at her home on Green street Friday evening, February 6. Dancing, singing and games were enjoyed after which dainty refreshments were served. The guests departed in the "wee sma' hours," all voting Miss LaPine a charming hostess and wishing her many more such happy occasions. The many friends of Alvin Schoonmaker will be pleased to know he is getting better from his severe sickness.

Howard Proper, who is employed on the tug Hercules, is spending some time at his home on South Broadway.

The Ever Ready Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Wallace Mable on Green street this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Port Ewen Lodge, No. 656, I. O. O. F., will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in its rooms in Pythian Hall.

Highway Commissioner James R. Rodman has a force of men opening the roads for the R. F. D. mail carrier and other roads that are blocked with large banks of snow. Port Ewen and vicinity is sorely supplied with snow and snow drifts. It looks as if it is surrounded by large herds of snow.

A benefit lecture for the Home for the Aged at Kingston will be given by State Senator Clayton R. Lusk on "Americanism vs. Radicalism," at the New York state armory, Kingston, N. Y., on Friday evening, February 13. The lecture is given under the auspices of the Federated Women's Club. This is a most worthy object and we hope that many of our people will take advantage of the opportunity of hearing such a brilliant speaker on such a timely subject of the affairs of our country. Tickets for this lecture may be procured at C. W. Card's drug store or at the home of Mrs. Alexander B. Secor.

Frank Doyle of Kingston spent Sunday night at his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard T. Doyle on Riverside avenue.

I'LL SAY SO

McDonnell's Orchestra at the armory, February 11th, 1920. Tickets 50c. War tax 5c. Seating 3 to 1—Admission.

History You May Not Know.

Our current paper is a out-of-the-ordinary new historical work on the subject of the Philippines. The Philippines called "Cape God," the said, and the first edition they want to pick up in the Philippines in order to show God, 3 that anyone could worship God in their own way.

Worked Hard of Spanish Note.

In 1906, on December 21, the United States Philippine commission ordered that all the laws of the Philippines be translated into English and that English should be the official language of the islands. For 200 years the official language of the Philippines had been Spanish.

FREEMAN WANT ADS. BRING RESULTS

SOCIALISTS TO HAVE THEIR TURN

Probably Thursday When State Will Have Finished Case—McLaughlin Resolution Up Tonight—May Put Sweet, Newton and Lusk on Stand.

By Telegram to The Freeman
Albany, N. Y., Feb. 9.—The assembly tonight will be asked to consider and dispose of the J. Fairfax McLaughlin resolution declaring that the judiciary committee charged with inquiry into the eligibility of the five suspended Socialists, can not make use of the legislative records of the Socialists because of constitutional prohibition.

The state has introduced in evidence the dissenting votes of the Socialists on all war measures passed by the legislature of 1917 and 1918. Assemblyman McLaughlin claims that the constitution does not permit the state to introduce in evidence the dissenting votes of the Socialists on war measures.

The investigation of the Socialists will be resumed tomorrow. The state is expected to take all of Tuesday and probably Wednesday to complete its case. Then the suspended men will be given opportunity to refute evidence introduced by the state against them. Resolving their opposition to the war measures with their pledge to the Socialist party not to support war legislation and their oath of the state constitution, is expected to be one of their principal lines of attack on the testimony introduced to permanently unseat them.

Monte Higgins, chief of counsel for the Socialists, is expected to return from Saratoga Lake, where he has been, to take up their defense again.

Speaker Sweet of the assembly, whom the Socialists regarded as being directly responsible for the ouster of Attorney General Charles J. Newton, who is prosecuting the case for the state, Senator Clayton R. Lusk, head of the legislative committee investigating red activities, and several other legislators, may be called to the witness stand by the Socialist counsel, it was reported today.

FIVE BUILDINGS FALL

In Hudson From Weight of Snow That Fell in Blizzard.

Five buildings have been wrecked in Hudson by roofs collapsing from the great weight of snow. Losses will total several thousand dollars.

A big frame storehouse in Gifford place, in the rear of C. A. Van Dusen's packing plant, has caved in. The roof of the shed of Rector's granite and marble works, Louis P. McLean's coal yard, Hallenbeck's coal yard and the Hudson and Athens ice house have fallen.

The roof of Hallenbeck Brothers' place, crashed through the floor, wrecking the building. More than 150 feet of the Rector building was wrecked and at the Van Dusen plant hundreds of dollars' worth of flour and grain was destroyed.

Tomorrow afternoon, the Woman's Auxiliary will meet at the parish house at 2:30 o'clock and a full attendance is desired.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

By Mary Graham Dwyer 9:22

TRUE OPOSSUM STORY.

"I'm going to tell you the true opossum story," said Mother Opossum to her little ones. They had been keeping so safe and had been growing so fine and strong in Mother Opossum's warm pouch but now she thought it was time they should see the world.

"It has been told so incorrectly so many times," said Mother Opossum.

"What does 'incorrectly' mean?" asked the little opossums. There were seven of them and Mother Opossum was very proud of them, for at first they had been little balls of almost nothing without any fur and without any real shape. But they had grown beautifully. They had learned how to use their little toes as hands and to hang on to their mother as she carried them about when she was marking or doing whatever she had to do about the countryside.

Their home was really in the hollow of a tree near some marshy ground. For they love the water and like to live near it.

They had fine vegetables growing not far away and in the daytime they stayed very quiet and hidden in their homes while at night they went forth to get what they wanted and what they found.

They lived in the south where it was warm for they did not like the cold weather.

"Now our family," said Mother Opossum, "is known as the Virginia opossum family. We have long, thin toes and when we walk over the marshy ground or where it is muddy it is very easy to know which trail is ours.

"We have coarse hair except on our tail and ears. Our snouts aren't very beautiful. They look too much like those of the pig family, but, of course, we cannot be perfect in every way.

"We aren't too fussy about our food for we eat meat as well as vegetables, and that is a good way to be. Fussy eaters are very difficult to get along with; they are always complaining and wanting something they don't see.

"But it is not of our tastes in food of which I want to tell you," Mother Opossum continued. "I want to tell you the truth about the opossum family, or in other words, a true opossum story.

"For years and years and years our chief trick, if you want to call it that, was to play that we were no longer alive when an enemy came around.

"It was our little way of protecting ourselves and it has been done by all opossums for as long as there have been opossums.

"We have always known that the wisest thing to do was to appear lifeless. We have been moved about and we have pretended we could not move of our own accord.

"We have been lifted up and put down in a certain position and we have stayed in that position.

"We haven't been willing to let folks know when we were alive for we have protected ourselves so long and so well by pretending we were not when we were met.

"But this is the truth of the whole story and this is what I want to tell you.

"It is true that this is what we have always done and I hope we will always have the sense to do it. I think opossums will never forget about the great opossum trick which is such a protection to them for we are so good at pretending when we're thinking of our protection.

"But it is not true that we do this because we are cowardly. No, indeed, the opossum is not cowardly. We try to be as safe as we can and so we hunt at night, but everyone tries to think of their safety and does not try to be foolhardy.

"All of that is true, but we play we are not alive when attacked as our means of looking after ourselves as we have always done. Every creature must have some way of looking after itself and that is ours, but children, let no one tell you that the opossum is not brave, for that is not the truth. The opossum, too, is strong; yes, that is the truth."

Objected to Red Hair.
"Gordon," said his mother, "your hair needs cutting. You are big enough now to go to the shop alone here in the money, and be sure to tell the barber to cut it like Jimmy's, neat hair," mentioning a red-headed chum.

"Oh, no, ma," protested Gordon, "don't want it cut like Jimmy's. He never have it cut other color."

Veron Even Affects Vegetables.

One authority on snakes has declared that the venom of the rattlesnake will affect even vegetables. Having investigated various varieties with a point of a lance, he found them the next day withered and dead, looking as if they had been struck by lightning.

14 FLU CASES ARE REPORTED

And Four Pneumonia to Board of Health This Morning—This Makes Total of 333 Cases Reported Since Outbreak—Spreading Through County

Fourteen new cases of flu and four cases of pneumonia were reported to the board of health this morning. These cases had developed since Saturday noon. Since the outbreak in the middle of January 333 cases of influenza have been reported in Kingston. Many of these cases have since recovered and been discharged.

The nursing situation in cases on remains the same and it is practically impossible to secure a nurse. The health board is supplying an hourly nurse service where needed. The board, however, can not furnish a nurse to serve full time on any one case.

The flu is also spreading through the county and many reports of the disease are being received from the outlying districts.

The blizzard of last Thursday has made the country roads impassable, and physicians are finding it difficult to make sick calls. Even in Kingston it is difficult for a physician to make a call in the city limits as the side streets in many places have not been broken open to traffic.

In the country conditions are even worse. One case is known several miles from Kingston where the entire family, except the wife, is confined to the bed with flu and it has been impossible for a physician to reach the house.

Fortunately where every precaution is taken the cases have proven of a mild nature.

Holy Name Smoker.

Thursday evening the members of the Holy Name Society of St. Joseph's Church will hold a smoker and entertainment at the school hall. There will be boxing and a number of other entertaining features will be introduced.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Andrew McGuire and children wish to express their thanks to their relatives and friends for the many acts of kindness bestowed during the illness of their husband and father, Andrew McGuire.

Ambulance Calls.

Saturday morning Jane Frederica was removed from 14 Ravine street to the Kingston City hospital.

That evening Samuel Geary was removed from 172 North street to the city hospital and Mrs. William Slater was removed from 21 Cedar street to the hospital.

Sunday John J. Dwyer was removed from the Benedictine Sanitarium to 52 Ten Broeck avenue.

Gold Bricks.

A gold brick, of the kind sold by clever swindlers to "easy marks," is a product of highly skillful workmanship. It is made of copper, alloyed with a little zinc, and is painted with real gold to which some mercury has been added. This gives a very smooth and satisfactory effect and the mercury being evaporated by heat, a final varnish of "gilding wax" lends an attractive luster.

Such is Human Nature.

The man who does the most complaining when an automobile breaks down is always the one who is waiting for more ride instead of the one who has to fix it.

Cows Do Go Dry.

Yeast—I understand your neighbor has a good stock of bottled goods in his cellar.

Crimsonhead—Yes, he has. "But I always thought he was a prohibitionist."

"Well, he is."

"Why the cellar full, then?"

"He says he doesn't want to take a chance on his cow going dry next summer."

Vegetable Leather.

The Japanese grow a plant which furnishes a sort of vegetable leather. It is a pretty shrub called the "mimosa," and its inner bark, after going through certain processes, is converted into a substance as tough as French kid, so transparent that one can almost see through it, and as smooth and soft as calfskin.

WOMEN'S PART IN FARM INSTITUTES

Although the attendance at the Farmers' Institutes was not as large as usual, due to the bad roads and considerable sickness in certain parts of the county, still the women who did attend were more interested than ever before in the programs.

The women's sessions held each afternoon of the institutes were conducted by Mrs. Lucile Hale Call of Stafford, Genesee county and Miss L. M. Stuart, home bureau manager of Ulster county. Mrs. Call was formerly the home bureau manager in Oswego county. Beside her splendid talks on the subject of clothing, she brought out many points about different types of home bureau work which created more interest and enthusiasm for the Ulster County Home Bureau.

In taking up the subject of clothing, Mrs. Call brought out several points regarding remodeling, taking up in particular the one piece dress made from a coat suit. She next gave her attention to the selection of material, taking up the reasons for some of the high prices and how to know just what to buy. Further, she showed how to test woolens and silks, to determine approximately to what extent they had been adulterated. Mrs. Call also acquainted the women with the fact that there is to be a bill presented to the legislature in Albany which if passed, will require the clothing manufacturers to label their goods stating the percent of wool in each piece of goods. In every meeting the women agreed that this bill should become a law. Mrs. Call then came to the subject of renovating garments, taking up in detail the dry cleaning process and the removing of spots and stains. It would be difficult to tell here all the new and especially valuable points that was brought out in the subject of renovating.

Beside the subject of clothing, Mrs. Call talked about simple home conveniences that every woman should have. Taking up the pressure cooker, fireless cooker, the range box, and the iceless refrigerator. Because of the almost unlimited amount of practical experience as well as her training in home economics, Mrs. Call's talks were particularly worth while and valuable.

The 1920 program of the Ulster County Home Bureau was taken up in some detail by Miss Lillian M. Stuart, the home bureau manager. At Mt. Marion a home bureau community meeting was planned for April. At Asbury a home bureau election took place. The committee for 1920, was as follows: Mrs. W. G. Trumpbour, Mrs. Clement and Mrs. Winne Finch. Asbury also decided to carry on the following lines of home bureau work this coming year: Making and use of the fireless cooker, millinery, and the home nursing course.

These institutes were held at Mt. Marion, Woodstock and Asbury. Those planned for Modena on Thursday and Brunswick on Friday had to be given up because of the severe snow storm and impassable roads. It is expected that the institutes will be held at these two places the latter part of March.

NEW BIBLE

For Use of Synagogues Using English Service.

With more than 600 delegates representing congregations aggregating 1,500,000 Jews in all parts of the United States, the 8th annual of the United Synagogue of America was held recently in Philadelphia. More than 500 members of the Women's League, a branch of the organization also met.

Rabbi Samuel M. Cohen, who spoke instead of Dr. Elias J. Solomon, president of the National Organization, who was prevented from attending by illness, also read the president's message which emphasized the necessity of strengthening the bonds of Jewish religion and value of Talmudic teachings for the young.

Rabbi C. David Mott of Minneapolis dedicated a new pulpit Bible prepared for service in synagogues where the English language is used.

No Coal for Electricity.

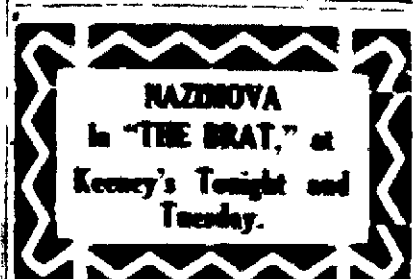

Because of the action of the Railroad Administration in seizing 100 cars of coal consigned to the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Co., Newburgh and the whole of the middle Hudson district is in danger of industrial paralysis this week. The company gave warning that it might be compelled to discontinue electric service throughout the Hudson valley within 24 hours. There never has been a time when this section had such a serious industrial menace. There is the possibility that sufficient coal may arrive at the Poughkeepsie station to permit the continuance of the plant, but because of the recent storm the outlook is very dubious.

Bill Open: Pass Time July 1.

OLYMPICS AND TROJANS WON

Saturday evening two more fast games of basketball were played at the Y. M. C. A. in the city basketball league. The first game was between the Athenians and the Trojans, the latter team winning out by the uneven score of 33-8. Dolson and Schoonmaker did the featuring for the winners by scoring 30 and 15 points, respectively. The summary:

Athenians.	FB.	FP.	TP.
Thompson, f.	1	0	2
L. Smith, f.	1	0	2
Meeker, c.	1	2	4
Schryver, g.	0	0	0
Monroe, g.	0	0	0
Totals.	3	2	8

Trojans.	FB.	FP.	TP.
Dolson, f.	15	0	30
Haves, f.	3	0	6
Schoonmaker, c.	7	1	15
Goldberg, g.	1	0	2
Total.	26	1	53

The second game was between the Olympics and the Romans, the former team winning out by a small margin of 4 points. This game was one of the fastest that has been played so far in the league. Last week the Romans beat the Trojans with a score of 21-20. Rowland, the star forward of the Romans, although a little fellow, scored 15 of the 17 points, the final score being 21-17. Jones, who usually scores about ten or more points, found himself under the surveillance of "Gob" Herb, who held him from scoring more than two field baskets. Dressel, the other forward for the winners, succeeded in dropping four fields. Possibly the game would have been more exciting had Johnson been in the game. However, he was detained elsewhere so the game ended thus:

Olympics.	FB.	FP.	TP.
Jones, f.	2	3	7
Dressel, f.	4	0	8
Foster, c.	2	0	4
